Our Celebration is:

Writing postcards to send home!

A visit to Speke Hall, where we will see for ourselves what life was like for some people in Speke in the past!

At home you can:

- Talk about Speke and how it has changed since your parents and grandparents were children.
- Read with and to your child regularly.
- Practise spelling key words.
- Use maths skills, e.g. counting and using money, weighing ingredients in the kitchen, etc.
- Practise telling the time on clocks with hands.

Please send into school:

- Any books, maps or facts you can find relating to Speke.
- Photographs showing life in Speke, past and present.
- Please bring your book bag into school every day for the chance to win our Reading Raffle!

On the web you can:

- Find lots of information about Speke and its history.
- Look at maps of the area (old and new).
- Find out about Speke Hall on the National Trust website.

We love reading!

1/2B are reading stories by our class author, Colin McNaughton.

Mrs Bradley is reading 'The Chess Men' by Peter May.
