

Ms. Fong

Welfare Assistant

Ms. Fong collects breakfast club money and works out how much bread is needed for toast. She counts the correct amount of toast for each class. She checks and counts the milk and fruit when it has been delivered and separates it into the correct amount for each class. She adds up the number of children in each class to find the total number of letters that need to be photocopied and sent home.

When have you used Maths today?

