Our hook activity is:

Our Celebration is:

Solving the mystery of what was on our school field until 15 years ago.

Sharing the floorbooks that we make.

At home you can:

Talk to local people who went to the original school— ask if they have any photographs and images from the original school that we could borrow.

Record things that you are told in your homework book.

On the web you can:

Go to our school website—just 'google' stocktonwood primary school

www.stocktonwoodprimary.co.uk

On our website under 'news' you will find lots of things that we are doing and links to great activities and websites especially under Liverpool Counts
