Our Finding Out Activity is:

Imagining what life is like for blind people and finding Braille around school and on every day objects.

We will make our names in braille by using the braille alphabet.
Can you use the braille alphabet to make someone's name at home?

At home, you can:	Can you find the answers to these questions?:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Look around your home and local environment for examples of Braille (If you find any we'd love it if you could bring it to school.) • Borrow books from the library about Louis Braille, Mary Seacole, Kitty Wilkinson, Florence Nightingale and other famous people from the past Also, *read with your child for 10 minutes each night, *practise telling the time on clocks with hands, *let your child use and handle money up to £1.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ? Where was Kitty Wilkinson from? ? Why was Florence Nightingale called The Lady with the Lamp? ? Do we still use Braille today? ? What other ways can we help blind people? ?
