Hello everyone,

I hope you all had a lovely half term.

World Book Day - Thursday 6th March

Please come to school wearing your favourite colour! We will be reading a variety of colour themed books during the day including:

'Rock up and Read with your Reading Buddy' – classes will buddy up with other classes to enjoy a book or two. There will be a selection of free books available for children to select from and each child will bring home their 'World Book Day' voucher.

Year 5 and 6 Reading Event

This week our Year 5 and Year 6 children enjoyed a 'Book Tasting Café'. This event has been funded by the National Literacy Trust. Each child brought a free book home. One pupil commented, 'I've never really liked books but I really like this one!'

Fundraiser

As part of our Social Impact Award, School Council have met to discuss which charity we will support this half term. They chose three charities and each class was then asked to select one. Children have voted to fundraise for: ALDER HEY 😊 More details will follow.

1. Which charity shall we fundraise for this half term?
